Both HighTower honorees rank within top 5 on industry list of promising young talent

CHICAGO — February 2, 2017 — HighTower advisors earned 2 spots in the “40 Under 40” rankings released last week by On Wall Street. JR Gondeck of The Lerner Group ranked second on the list and Bob White of the Morse, Towey & White team ranked fifth.

“This well-deserved recognition is a testament not only to JR and Bob’s remarkable work, but also to the HighTower culture as an environment where driven young advisors flourish and grow,” said Michael Parker, Chief Development Officer, HighTower.

Walter (“JR”) Gondeck Jr. is a Managing Director and Partner with The Lerner Group at HighTower, located in Deerfield, Ill. Prior to joining HighTower, JR was a Senior Vice President at Morgan Stanley Smith Barney from 2003 to 2012. In addition to managing equity portfolios, JR manages almost $200 million of fixed income portfolios for the Lerner Group. He specializes in analyzing financial statements for the benefit of equity and fixed income securities.

Bob White is a Managing Director and Partner with the Morse, Towey & White Group in HighTower’s New York City office. He leads the team’s financial planning division, manages the team’s discretionary mutual fund portfolio, and oversees 529 and 401(k) plans, annuities, life insurance policies, and several of the team’s day-to-day operational activities. He joined the Morse Group at UBS, predecessor to the Morse, Towey & White team at HighTower, in 2002.
