2016 Marks Ms. Rosenau's Fifth Consecutive Ranking on Prestigious List

CHICAGO —June 7, 2016— HighTower Managing Director Pamela Rosenau ranks 14th on Barron's annual list of the "Top 100 Women Financial Advisors," marking her fifth consecutive appearance on the list and her 12th Barron's honor.

"We are very proud of Pamela's success, she is a true student of the markets, and we are honored to call her our partner," said Elliot Weissbluth, CEO, HighTower. "We congratulate her for another year of unwavering focus on and passion for serving her clients."

Ms. Rosenau appeared in Barron's "Top 1200 Advisors by State" compilation earlier this year. Managing approximately $1 billion in client assets, she also shepherds her clients through highly complex and personal financial situations. Ms. Rosenau began her career at Wertheim & Co./Schroders PLC, and worked for various other sell-side firms before joining HighTower.

Barron's selects honorees for inclusion in its "Top 100 Women Financial Advisors" feature using criteria such as assets under management, practice quality and generated revenues. The full list is available at <http://www.barrons.com/report/top-financial-advisors/women/2016>.
